

Corporate gift

KEN YUSZKUS/Staff photo

Royall Mack, corporate vice president for civic affairs at Gillette Co., talks with Shanique Kelley, an eighth-grader at Community Day Charter School in Lawrence, as Margaret R. Kramer, head of the lower school, looks on. Mack visited the school Friday to present a $5,000 grant to support a computerized reading program. The award was made in honor of Gillette retirees who have been volunteering as mentors at the school for the last four years.